Oakworth Capital Bank receives highest rating in national ranking
Strong financial condition led to 5-star rating by BauerFinancial Inc.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Oakworth Capital Bank has received a five-star rating from BauerFinancial, a leading financial institution-rating agency in the U.S. This is Oakworth’s debut year on the list and the rating puts the Birmingham-based bank among the top tier of strongest banks. Oakworth is one of only two Birmingham area banks to receive a five-star rating.

Oakworth CEO Scott Reed said the high rating was due to the banks client-focused approach that has lead to a very solid financial foundation.

“We have a four-step approach to working with clients that cultivates an in-depth understanding of goals and objectives. This understanding leads to sound financial decisions for our clients and ultimately to solid financial performance for Oakworth Capital.” says Reed.

After the financial meltdown of large, national banks, many consumers are seeking smaller, local banking options. BauerFinancial’s high ranking for Oakworth is good news for Birmingham residents looking for financial stability and peace of mind when investing locally.

BauerFinancial has ranked U.S. banks and federally insured credit unions for over 25 years. Of the nation’s banks, only the most financially sound and those likely to increase profit scored high enough to receive the highest rating of five stars. Ratings are based upon data including profitability, reserves, historical trends and regulatory compliance.
